

One of our most frequently asked questions is, “How do I determine if a movie is covered under the Church Video License?”

- Though there may be a number of legitimate websites containing movie information to reference, in this example, we'll use the IMDb (Internet Movie Database) website.
- (Disclaimer: CVLI and MPLC are in no way affiliated with IMDb and does not endorse or control the accuracy of the content contained therein.)
- Go to IMDb.com
 - In the search field at the top, enter part of the movie title and press the magnifying glass.
 - The more exact you are, the better the results.
 - For our example, type in “Star Trek”
- A list of titles with “Star Trek” in the name appears.
 - #1 is the 1966 Star Trek TV series
 - #2 is the 2009 movie, Star Trek
 - #3 is the 1979 movie, Star Trek: The Motion Picture
- We want #2: Star Trek from 2009.
 - Go over the details to make sure this is the exact movie you want: short synopsis, director, actors, watch the trailer, etc.
 - Scroll down to “Company Credits,” and at the end of the line which says, “Production Co:” click “See more >>”
- There are two main lists:
 - The first list is “Production Companies,” the studios which produced the movie.
 - And the second list is “Distributors,” the studios with distribution rights, this is the list we're after.
 - When searching for movies, always use the “Distributors” list.
 - When searching for TV programs, always use the “Production Companies” list.
- Search the list for the distributor:
 - In this case, the studio is “Paramount Pictures.”
 - Paramount Pictures has the USA Theatrical rights or the Public Performance Rights for this movie in the USA.
- Next, go to cvli.com
 - On the top, right of the screen, hover your mouse over “Producers,” and click on the package your facility has.
 - Let's use the “Total Package.”
 - Review the alphabetical list to see if this producer is listed.
 - It is! This movie is covered under the CVLI Church Video License Total Package.
